

Workplace wellbeing doesn't fail from lack of effort...
It fails from lack of structure.

The OMAW Case Manager

The missing link that connects your people, partners, and processes into one working system.

THE PROBLEM

You've invested in:

- Mental Health First Aid
- EAP
- Training and wellbeing initiatives

...but it still feels:

- Disconnected
- Reactive
- Hard to oversee
- Dependent on individuals

That's because there's no system holding it all together.

THE SOLUTION

Your OMAW Case Manager is a dedicated wellbeing administrator and system integrator ensuring your workplace support system is connected, consistent, safe, and structured.

CONNECT

- Supports MHFAiders and peer support roles
- Guides safe conversations and escalation pathways
- Connects people to the right support early

STRENGTHEN

- Identifies trends and emerging risks
- Supports leaders with practical guidance
- Keeps your system active — not just implemented

PROTECT

- Provides oversight across wellbeing activity
- Supports psychosocial hazard alignment
- Strengthens governance and reporting

THE DIFFERENCE

Without a Case Manager:

- Fragmented support
- Over-reliance on individuals
- Gaps and risk exposure

With OMAW:

- One coordinated system
- Clear roles and boundaries
- Confidence in your approach

OUTCOME

- People are supported early
- Leaders feel confident
- Risks are managed proactively
- Compliance becomes a by-product of good structure

One Partner. Many Specialists. One Integrated Approach.
